The Wyoming Highway Patrol had been advised Cunningham told his mother he had broken down in the Hoback area on Sunday, May 27, 2018. Cunningham had planned on going camping, then to work. His mother had not heard anything further from him.

On May 28, 2018, Cunningham did show up for work at a local hotel on Monday morning, May 28, 2018. Cunningham left for lunch around noon and did not return to work.

Cunningham's vehicle was located on the Flat Creek Road, north of the National Elk Refuge, but no sign of Cunningham.

Anyone with information is requested to contact Detective Dave Hodges, Teton County Sheriff's Office, at 307-733-2331 or 307-732-8252.
